- LANGUAGE SKILLS

Native speaker: Italian
Other language(s): English: Level of competence B2 (speaking, understanding, writing)
French: Level of competence B1 (speaking, understanding, writing)

- SOFT SKILLS

Communication skills: I have a friendly personality, adaptability and good communication skills in my personal and professional life (I have effective communication, I'm compassionate with animals and owners, I have good decision making and problem solving, consistence in the workflow, good productivity and good self-control in stressful scenario).

Organizational/Managerial skills: I'm a well-organized person with good physical organization (able to keep my workplace well-organized) and strong skills to plan and prioritize every work has been assigned to me. I have also good mental organizational skills to research and analyse situations, prepare documentations and think strategically. I apply this methodical approach to every clinical case, according to the international "problem-oriented approach". I also acquired some managerial skills when responsible for providing directions and overseeing operations of students.

Autonomous work/Teamwork abilities: During my professional positions, especially the postgraduate internship, I progressively learned to work autonomously, approaching to every different clinical case with problem-oriented approach. At the same time, I progressively improved my manual dexterities and I learned to discuss different clinical approaches and cooperate with professors, colleagues, students and owners; I improved my constructive criticism and positive mindset.

Other job-related skills (personal verbal and writing communication skills):

1. Speaker at the ECVIM-CA international Congress 2020 and ACVIM Forum 2021
2. Cagnasso F, Roncone S, Caccamo R, Peano A, Gianella P. Severe chronic idiopathic lymphoplasmacytic rhinitis in a dog" Vet Rec case reports 2021, 277. doi: 10.1002/vrc2.77
